REMEDIES

If a warranted product leaks within the applicable warranty period due to an original product defect as described in the Standards, the Company shall, upon receiving a bona fide warranty claim, at its sole election, and subject to the limitations and exclusions set forth below, either (1) furnish replacement shakes, or (2) refund a pro rata portion (the "pro rata refund") of the amount the original owner paid for the purchase of the defective shakes (the "purchase price"). These remedies are the exclusive and sole remedies available under the Warranty.

In the case of replacement the Company shall be responsible only for the cost of purchasing replacement product (the "replacement costs") up to a maximum amount equivalent to the amount of any pro rata refund that would be paid for the same warranty claim. The original owner shall be responsible for any replacement costs above this maximum amount, as well as any additional expenditures for labor or materials, such as tear-off (product removal) costs, or the cost of installing, repairing or replacing venting, metal work, flashings, underlayments, fasteners or other related materials. In the case of a pro rata refund, the amount of the refund shall be determined by multiplying the purchase price by the percentage of the warranty period remaining (determined by dividing the number of months remaining in the applicable warranty period by the total number of months in the warranty period) as of the date the Company receives the warranty claim.
